WILD DUCK RESTAURANT IN ALBANY AND THE SINGING CHEF IN BUNBURY TAKE TOP ACCOLADES IN AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE

Wild Duck Restaurant in Albany and The Singing Chef in Bunbury have been named the top places to dine in the 2011 Savour Australia™ Restaurant & Catering Awards for Excellence for regional Western Australia. Wild Duck Restaurant also won the category of Best Contemporary Australian Restaurant, while The Singing Chef won their category of Regional Western Australian Caterer. The major award of Restaurant of the Year was proudly sponsored by this years major sponsor HOSTPLUS.

More than 30 restaurants and caterers whose businesses are located throughout regional Western Australia were recognised at the ceremony last night (February 28) at Quay West, Bunker Bay to acknowledge excellence in food and service.

Both Wild Duck Restaurant and The Singing Chef will now compete with venues from across Australia in the National finals in late October this year.

Restaurant & Catering CEO John Hart commented that "the Awards for Excellence represent an important moment as the industry pauses to honour these outstanding venues who were reviewed on the whole dining experience rather than a single dimension".

The Awards for Excellence were judged by a team of judges who anonymously visited the venues to determine the winners.

Restaurant & Catering represents thousands of restaurant and catering businesses operating across Australia. Each year over 900 members are reviewed in the Awards for Excellence.

See the attached winners list for a complete list of category winners in the 2011 Savour Australia™ Restaurant & Catering Regional Western Australia Awards for Excellence.
